

ENGLAND STAR DRIBBLES HIS WAY INTO HEARTS

Jadon Sancho of the England U-17 football squad with students of The Newtown School on Thursday. The 5ft-9inch boy mock dribbled a ball to cries of “Sancho, Sancho”. The star of the FIFA U-17 World Cup with three goals in two matches and his teammates spent nearly an hour with students of the school and children from Kolkata Goalz — a collaborative Premier Skills project between the English Premier League and the British Council with the support of Calcutta police — and Durbar Sports Academy, a training ground for children of sex workers. Dhruvika Patodia, a Class IX student and member of The Newtown School’s football squad, was “in seventh heaven” with Sancho’s autograph on her jersey and studs. (Pradip Sanyal)

