

Newtown School hosts concert

Give the children an opportunity to make a garden. Let them grow what they would. This call was given by The Newtown School, which hosted the first-of-its-kind event in Kolkata, organised 'Spic Macay: National School Intensive 2016'. The concert witnessed remarkable performances in Odissi and Carnatic violin. The week-long annual event would see programmes in kathak, sitar, sattariya, Hindustani vocal, Carnatic flute, dhruwad, kathakali, and sarod. Students will be given a remarkable opportunity to see and learn from various maestros and renowned artistes.
